

MCCARTER GRESPAN BEYNON WEIR PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION is the leading business law boutique firm in the Region of Waterloo. Our Firm has achieved ongoing success and rapid growth by focusing on building a team of highly skilled and experienced real estate, corporate, condominium and wills and estates legal specialists dedicated to meeting and exceeding the increasingly complex needs and expectations of our clients.

“We pride ourselves on finding creative and strategic solutions to our client’s business concerns in a timely fashion, while always having our client’s best interest at heart.”

We are looking for a Summer Student (2026) to work with a busy team of lawyers and law clerks on a variety of corporate, real estate, condominium and wills and estates matters.

At McCarter Grespan, you will enjoy the experience of taking an active role in files giving you the opportunity to think through processes while working under guidance of a highly skilled team of lawyers.

As a summer student, you will:

- Conduct legal research and draft memoranda.
- Assist with drafting legal documents.
- Participate in client meetings, closings, and transaction support.
- Review and organize corporate records, real estate files, and estate planning materials.
- Support lawyers and clerks with ongoing client matters.

What We’re Looking For

- Current second-year law student (2L) in good standing at an accredited law school.
- Strong research, writing, and analytical skills.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and deadlines in a professional setting.
- Interest in business law and in building a career in a regional practice.
- A team player with a proactive approach and strong attention to detail.

Why Join Us?

- Exposure to a wide range of client matters.
- Mentorship from lawyers and clerks who are committed to student development.
- A supportive environment where you can make meaningful contributions to files.
- Work in one of Canada’s fastest-growing regions, with a thriving local business community.

Salary range: $925-$975 per week
